Personal Statements

Your son must complete each of the following essays in English and submit both with his completed application.

Essay #1:

In 200 words, summarize in English the last book you read. It doesn't matter if the book is in your native language.

Essay #2:

In 100 words, explain why you want to come to Northridge.

Application Process

Step One: Application for Admission

The application must be submitted with all corresponding components in order for your son to be considered for admission. These components are listed in their entirety on the front page of this application.

Step Two: Skype Interview with the Program Director

Following the submission of a completed application package, your file will be reviewed for admission. Once approved, a Skype interview with your son will be required. Parents may be present during this interview which typically lasts 30 minutes. For your reference, our Skype ID is Northridge.Prep.

Step Three: Enrollment Contract

If your son is admitted to Northridge, an enrollment contract will be emailed to your primary email address. The contract must be completed and submitted within 15 days.
